

K-Love provides encouraging music and uplifting stories which would be missed by our community that would no longer have a Christian radio station, and K Love serves the local public by being a positive influence and providing wholesome music and promoting wholesome values.